Bobbitt on the 4th of July Celebration at Waynesburg.

WAYNEBURG, July 5th.—The glorious 4th has come and gone and a most glorious day and time of celebration and enjoyment it was. I left Crab Orchard July 3 and went to Junction City. No connection of course, but in complying with the request of the editor, I met Mr. Surber, an old Pulaskian of ante bellum days. He and others promised me a crowded house if I would stay over and speak, but wishing to get to Waynesburg before the great natal day of independence, I embarked on a freight and struck out at a slow pace for Waynesburg, where, after various halts and one pretty long one, stuck in the gloomy vaults in the dreary regions of Pluto in the tunnel, we arrived between 10 and 11 o'clock. We put up at the Gooch Hotel, regaled and treated there by host and hostess like a Nabob in India for two days and nights, and this morning a Bee from the Hive is to drive me over to the depot at Maywood and then I shall soon be at Crab Orchard, nothing preventing.

At Junction City I read law under the thrice Congressman, Hon. Sherrod Williams. There he handed me a large law book, 1,000 pages, and said: "Read that and then come and recite." In three weeks I came back and handed him the book and from memory, recited it verbatim. All this is a Hercules story that will grow to 2,000 pages and two days' reading after I am dead. Nobody seems to be astonished that Williams could sit and listen to me recite a book that it takes months to read.

Now something of that noble Hive of Maccabees: The celebration here was given under the auspices of the Maccabees and Woodmen, and I never attended a gathering anywhere where such good order and propriety prevailed. Not only are the Bees well behaved; but the people are the most orderly, well behaved and christian people I ever saw. No drunken men, no disorderly conduct. Never saw any whiskey nor any man who had seen any or wanted to taste any.

God has blessed these people in their lands and their goods, their houses and their stores, their gardens and their fields. Industry has waved her magic wand over the land and grain and fruit and vegetables have sprung forth intermingled with the fragrant flowers of rural happiness and domestic bliss. Industry and temperance are twin sisters and in their realm prosperity and happiness reign supreme.

The 4th was a decided success in every way; financially and in happy enjoyment. Rev. W. R. Davidson was ever-present, introducing, talking and entertaining. E. Bright, an Ohioan, the talented young Saufley, Judge Warren and little Miss Myrtle Reynolds all made speeches or recited, and M. F. Elkin made the finest speech on the fraternal order of Maccabees to which an audience ever gave attention. Young Saufley's speech, as a classic gem of pearly sentences, has never been excelled. Dick Warren was in his happiest mood and his historical references were beautifully eloquent and sublime. Elkin's speech was so beautiful in diction and in appropriate word painting that I suspected it to have been composed before delivery. Most of the speeches appeared to spring spontaneously from the mental mint, newly coined like Minerva from the brain of Jupiter. At my request, Mr. Elkin traced his order back more than 20 centuries to Judas Maccabeus, who lived 170 years before Christ. While the orators were climbing the golden stairway that connects earth with the imperial realms in the far off blue dome of fancy, I was lost in astonishment at the wonderful powers of the human mind. We are strangely and wonderfully made. 'Tis strange that a harp of a thousand strings will keep in tune so long. The string band from Stanford made music that caused the severed head of Orpheus to sink beneath the waves of Aegean sea without giving it time to mutter the name of his beloved Euridice. Eight of us were regaled at Mrs. Alice Gooch's with a feast that caused the table to creak and groan under its ponderous weight and the table would soon have fallen had it not been for its lightning by eight hungry men. It reminded me of the Gods banqueting with Jupiter on Mount Olympus and queen Juno (Mrs. Gooch) dispensing the nectar which Jupiter sips. At that table sat four ambassadors of the skies, judges in spotless ermine, one-fiftieth of the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature, ex-officials and next officials of all kinds, and my visions of young Saufley, an embryo of all offices that can be held under the constitution. On the morning of the 5th I walked over at the dawn of day to old Waynesburg and with tearful eyes and aching heart beheld the ruin that time had wrought. I went to the famous cold spring and mingled my tears of regret with its crystal waters. With choking voice I quoted Tennyson's poem:

"Men may come and men may go but I go on forever."

Men who quenched their thirst here are gone, but the brooklet still goes murmuring on. I saw the spot where 14 years ago I spoke for three hours under the umbrageous oak that towered over the heads of nearly every voter in the precinct, as with the slowly circling shade the audience moved slowly around while the grinding in the speaker's mill went steadily on. With breaking heart I called for Aaron and Pleas Singleton, Isaac and Bowen Camden, Maj. Tuttle, Clark Reynolds, Smith Reynolds, Wash Stephens, H. W. Caldwell, Kit Singleton, my father and Uncle Bob Stuart. The last two attended my speaking there in 1873, but no answering echoes came. All gone to the echoless shore! Even the vandal had felled the old oak under which I spoke, and a utilizing, get-rich age had converted the monarch of the forest into lumber. It would not have been so bad had it been converted into musical instruments. But had I been present I should have exclaimed: "Woodman, spare that tree!" What a glorious thing is the thought of a happy resurrection beyond the dark river of death! For when true hearts be withered and loved ones have gone, Oh who could inhabit this bleak world alone?

Oh, is it not sweet to think hereafter When the spirit leaves this sphere, Love on deathless wings shall waft her To those we long have mourned for here.

Hearts from which 'twas death to sever Eyes this world can never restore, There as warm and bright as ever Shall meet us and be lost no more.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Mayfield is to have a $25,000 Christian church.

At a meeting of the directors of the Baptist Educational Society of Kentucky, in Louisville, it was determined to make an effort to raise $500,000 for the purpose of developing the schools and colleges of that denomination in the State.

Of interest to Sunday school workers: Again we desire to call attention to the county convention that is to be held at Turnersville Christian church Tuesday, July 23. All the Sunday schools in the country will be notified and sent programs for distribution. Each school is urged to send at least one or two delegates, a statistical report and a contribution for the State and county work. This is a matter that should have prompt attention. This is a convention that every Sunday school worker should attend. The duties of parents, pastors, superintendents, teachers and pupils will be discussed by the State worker and others. The addresses will be practical and helpful. Let us make this the best convention ever held in Lincoln county. For program and other particulars, address the county president, L. M. Omer, or the county secretary, J. C. McClary.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c.

George Willman, aged three years, was burned to death in Lexington, his clothes catching fire from a wax taper.

Labor leaders in national affairs are making special efforts to influence the coming Congressional elections and have prepared a "blacklist" of those Representatives who have not cast their votes on the side of labor.

The annual school census of Kentucky as compiled by Superintendent of Public Instruction Fuqua shows that in Kentucky there are 733,331 children of school age. The per capita has not been fixed, but probably will be no less than last year.

After colliding with a Southern Railway passenger train in Memphis, a Southern Railway switch engine with two cars attached dashed wildly without a crew three-quarters of a mile to the Union Depot, where it crashed into two mail cars. Nine men were injured, one seriously.

Nathaniel Jackson, a Negro, aged 23, who was shot through the heart eight weeks ago, has just died in the city hospital at Henderson. Dr. H. W. Edwards, who held a post mortem, took a 32 caliber bullet from the apex of the heart, just under the skin, the bullet having gone almost through that organ.

Bowel Complaint in Children.

During the summer months children are subject to disorders of the bowels which should receive careful attention as soon as the first unnatural looseness of the bowels appears. The best medicine in use for bowel complaint is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as it promptly controls any unnatural looseness of the bowels. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Dave Hall, indicted for blockading and whose trial was to have occurred before the special term of the United States District Court, in Ashville, last week, was discharged from custody because his father was near death's door. He hails from Shelton Laurel, is 73 years old, and his father, Alex Shelton, is probably the oldest man in North Carolina, being between 115 and 120 years of age. He is said to be the father of 34 children, all of them boys. The old man has never worn glasses, is not deaf, and is a fine type of the hardy mountaineer.—Exchange.

Twenty Year Battle.

"I was a loser in a 20 year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; which turned the tide, by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. Dame Rump seldom errs. The next actors upon the matrimonial stage will astonish the natives in this neck of the woods and up and down the creek, where they will live.

The sale of 25 of Dignity Dare's get averaged $538.40, and the average age of the lot is two years and 10 months. This is surely a bright star in the crown of laurels won by the equine model of the West End.

A feature worth mentioning in connection with the ball game last week between Hustonville and Yosemite, when the score was 7 to 0, was that only one hit was made off of our phenomenal pitcher, Milton McCormack, whose ability to pitch with either hand any kind of a drop or curve puts him in a class alone.

Mrs. Bettie Craft, aged 77, sister of Mrs. Ann Ashley, aged 86, died at her home near Somerset July 1st, in the morning and at 5 P. M., the same day the elder sister passed into eternity. Mrs. Ashley was the mother of Charles Ashley, of the West End, and was a devout member of the Baptist church. She leaves four sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of one whose place can not be filled. A large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives attended the funeral.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

An opinion of the attorney general, concurred in by the auditor, is to the effect that rectifiers are required to pay on all spirits, rectified, adulterated or blended by them, whether it be straight distilled spirits, known as double-stamp spirits or single stamp spirits, thereby producing what is known as single-stamp spirits.

Don't Be Backward.

Do not hesitate to ask for a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. We are glad to give them to anyone who is troubled with biliousness, constipation, or any disorder of the stomach. Many have been permanently cured by their use. Stanford Drug Co.

We are afraid the Atlantic City excursions will be a failure this year, so far as the baldheads are concerned. The city authorities have issued a decree that girls who appear on the beach in white bathing suits must follow the maternal injunction and "not go near the water." Complaints that fair bathers were shocking beach crowds by wearing garments that, when wet, become almost transparent, resulted in the edict going forth.—Frankfort Journal.

HOSPITAL PHYSICIANS SAID:
"IT WOULD DELIGHT US TO FIND SOMETHING TO CURE THIS DEAR OLD SUFFERER."

MR. E. W. ROSE, St. Louis, Mo. RICHMOND, IND., Nov. 20, 1905.
DEAR SIR: The charity patient in whom I am so much interested was seventy-five years old at the time that she began the use of "Zemo," and her weight was 150 lbs. Her health has been poor for some time past, suffering mainly from apical trouble, according to the diagnosis of the doctors in attendance. She has been a hard worker all her life, having made the living for her family keeping boarders. Somewhat over a year ago eczema began to trouble her. It gradually grew worse and worse until her entire body was affected, the legs being a mass of sores con- stantly separating. The itching and burning sensation was so dreadful at times that it was impossible for her to sleep day or night. The doctors (two of our best) pronounced the case incurable, and when I asked permission to use "Zemo" promptly said, "It would delight us to find something to cure this dear old sufferer." "Zemo" was first used on the upper part of the body and soon relieved the patient of the terrible distress caused by the itching and burning. The doctors had been dressing the legs every day, but as soon as they saw the wonderful change in the skin where "Zemo" had been used, they gave consent to have it used on the legs. Gradually they began to improve and are now almost as smooth as the face. It was probably about a month before much relief was experienced in this part of the body, then skin scaled off, itching, burning and aching gradually ceased. It seems now as if a testimonial might be given, but the patient thinks that she had better use "Zemo" a few weeks longer before saying that she is cured. However, she is very grateful to all who have been instrumental in securing your wonderful remedy and thinks that it has a great future before it.

CURT JETT, the confessed assassin of J. B. Marcum, failed to corroborate his confession on the witness stand Wednesday at Beattyville, in the trial of James Hargis and Ed Callahan, jointly charged with being accessory to the murder of Marcum. He was drunk while testifying, and asserted that he was prompted to the murder only by revenge, and was not urged to the deed either by Hargis or Callahan. Tom White failed to make a witness, refusing to answer any questions. Much important testimony was introduced during the day by the Commonwealth, and it is claimed a strong case was made against both the defendants.

FORMER JUDGE ALTON B. PARKER, in a written statement, takes issue with some of the utterances of Secretary Taft in his speech delivered at Greensboro, N. C. He declares that the secretary attempted to have his hearers draw the inference that the recent prosecutions of alleged illegal combinations were due to the new laws. Judge Parker says this is not true, and quotes from his letter of acceptance and a speech made during the last presidential campaign to the effect that the laws existing then were adequate to give relief if enforced.

THEY are going back to first principles at Sheridan, Ind. The town board has decided that hereafter all men convicted of intoxication must work the streets 10 hours a day with ball and chain shackled to their ankles. The citizens are so disgusted with drunkards who infest the place that the blue laws will be welcomed. We should like to see the same laws resurrected in Kentucky. Of all the disgusting creatures on the face of the earth a drunken man is the limit, and is less deserving of decent consideration.

THE Pennsylvania Railway is in position to dictate to the country, and it is not slow in doing so. The magnitude of its operation is shown in a committee report which states that it operates more than 10,000 miles of line, and which in 1905, carried 123,431,325 passengers, moved 327,131,839 tons of freight, expended in purchases of real estate, construction, rolling stock, fuel, material and supplies $148,338,774, and paid in wages $120,644,876 to 194,429 officers and employees.

MR. WILLIAM JENNINGS PRICE, of Danville, announces his candidacy for Congress this issue. THE Census Bureau makes the surprising statement that about one person in every 1,200 is blind and one in every 850 persons deaf in the United States, the total number being 64,763 blind and 89,287 deaf. Both afflictions, it is said to say, are increasing the number of its victims.

Summer Comfort and Cleanliness

The pores of the skin are responsible for most complexion troubles. Summer dust, the stain of vacation travel, combined with the grease of perspiration, clog and stiffen the pores. Keep them clear and healthy, so that the natural oils may do their work of softening the skin.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

withdraws every particle of impurity from the pores—all the way through—and by gently exercising the facial muscles rounds them out to perfect development; blackheads and wrinkles immediately disappear, leaving nothing but the natural glow of health.

THE Great Danville Fair will send exclusively its advertising matter to the newspapers in this section for the exhibition this year and will not advertise in any other manner.—Advocate. A sensible move. There is every reason to believe that the public generally will read more carefully a well-displayed advertisement in the home paper than it would bills on trees, barns, etc., which in nine cases out of ten do not stay up much longer than it takes to hang them.

SWELL SOCIAL FUNCTION.—At the country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pence, Sr., on Wednesday evening, was indeed one of the swellest as well as one of the most enjoyable social functions, ever afforded our society set. Some 200 invitations were issued by the charming hostesses, Misses Kate and Dora Pence, and 150 or more took advantage of the pleasant occasion. In the receiving line were Misses Kate and Dora Pence and Jennie Lynn and Messrs. Alfred and Adam Pence and after the guests had been received they were taken in charge by Misses Sara Baughman, Stella McClary, Ophelia Chancellor, Nancy Newland and Mrs. Sue Yeager, assisted by the Misses Pence and brothers, and were entertained in a delightful manner on the brilliantly illuminated lawn where tete-a-tete seats and swings were arranged. About 11 o'clock delightful refreshments were served in the large dining room, which was exquisitely decorated for the occasion. When the hour for departure arrived, the guests showered their praises and best wishes upon the Misses Pence and bade them a reluctant good-night with many assurances of an evening pleasantly spent.

LINCOLN county seems to be a favored locality for banks. Though it has a population of only 17,659, and a third at least of it is knob land, it has six banks, each of which has just declared a dividend ranging from 3 to 6 per cent., according to the statements published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL.—Frankfort Journal.

A MEDICAL journal says that by boiling all the water and sterilizing all the milk and thoroughly cooking all the vegetables and killing all the flies, and doing various and sundry other things the average person will be immune from typhoid fever. Most people, however, will decide that the remedy is worse than the disease, and run the risk of catching it.

BORDES.—John B. Bordes, aged 80, died at his home beyond Crab Orchard Tuesday and was buried in the Crab Orchard Cemetery at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The Masons, of which order he was a member, had charge of the exercises at the grave. Mr. Bordes was a Frenchman and left his country many years ago. He is survived by his wife and three sons.

ABOUT 60 guests responded to Mrs. J. S. Rice's "At Home" invitations for the afternoon of July 11th to meet Mrs. Matson, of Lebanon, and it proved to be one of the most elegant receptions ever given in our town. However, much disappointment was felt that the guest of honor was prevented from being present on account of illness. The home of Mrs. Rice was brilliantly lighted and very elaborately decorated, the colors used throughout the house being pink, white and green. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. K. Bourne, of New Castle, in receiving her guests, and Misses Nell Warren and Sotie Alcorn very gracefully presided at the frappe bowl. The dining room presented a most beautiful scene; the table bare of cover, was literally banked with pink and white carnations and masses of smilax, in the center of which was the handsome candelabrum, containing pink and white candles. The ices were in pink and white, the cake and mints carrying out the same color scheme. As the guests were served with refreshments pink and white sweet peas were pinned upon them. The band dispensed sweet music throughout the afternoon. Mesdames Wm. Severance, Clarence Tate, Bessie McKinney, J. S. Owsley and Thomas Rice were interesting in entertaining the guests and many encomiums of praise were heaped upon Mrs. Rice for the delightful afternoon.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of trial was therefore a great surprise, instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

SHE WOULDN'T TAKE A DARE.—Mrs. Grace Adams Luker, a young widow of Boston, was married on short notice last night because she wouldn't take a "dare," says a Denver telegram.

William H. Ryer, a Colorado Springs mine magnate and clubman, while conversing with her, said he was about to leave for Chicago and Northern Michigan. She wished she could go along, she said, and he said she could.

"How?" she asked.
"As my wife," he said, "I dare you to marry me."

"I never took a dare in my life," she said, promptly, "and I won't now."

Ryer stepped to the telephone and arranged for a marriage license and a minister, and an hour later they were married. Two hours later they were on their way to Chicago.

Saved His Comrade's Life.

"While returning from the Grand Army Encampment at Washington City, a comrade from Elgin, Ill., was taken with cholera morbus and was in a critical condition," says Mr. J. E. Houghland, of Eldon, Iowa. "I gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and believe saved his life. I have been engaged for 10 years in immigration work and conducted many parties to the south and west. I always carry this remedy and have used it successfully on many occasions." Sold by Stanford Drug Co.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravage of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. The genuine is in a yellow package. Penny's Drug Store.

The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. Was in Poor Health For Years.

Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

No. 75, 150,000 acres of cotton land in Mississippi. There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investment as the Mississippi Delta which is now fully described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber is becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that lumber people from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing, are constantly increasing their purchases of timber lands in the South. When the timber is removed the land is unequalled for agricultural purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone. The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the title is perfect and the man who buys Delta farm land at present prices is making a fine investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from 40 acres to the tract of 20,000 acres to the big and prices from $10 per acre to $20 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of Delta farm land, we are offering these tracts at a special price, with a withdrawal from market or change in price without notice. However, when notified, they will hold any tract out of market long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. These 20,000 acres of this land has been sold by the Company since we received this option. For further particulars call at our office.
